CLARE VALLEY

When 'the' Mr Tony Love says your $40 wine is worth it's value twice over, you know you're doing something right!

Featured in today's Advertiser, he describes our 2012 Stolen Block Shiraz as having 'sweetly spiced fruit', 'glorious oak' and 'fabulous richness' with 'fruit bomb juiciness and generosity' and 'impressive balance'.

REILLY'S STOLEN BLOCK
2012 / Shiraz
Value: Worth it twice over
Best with: Finest rib eye

★★★★★

The alcohol level is scary at 16 per cent – sledgehammer stuff – and it's accordingly darkly dense in the glass with powerful black and sweetly spiced fruit, glorious oak and fabulous richness all swelling out and upwards. Yes, it's huge with fruit bomb juiciness and generosity but all this comes with impressive balance for so much muscle. Don't spend hundreds on other big guns – give this a shot.

The Advertiser, Taste liftout, Wednesday 6th May 2015

RRP $40 per bottle / $480 per dozen

Sourced from dry grown vineyards that were planted in the 1920's, this Shiraz has been open fermented and matured in new French oak. 2012 was an outstanding vintage with Justin saying it is THE vintage of recent times, our best since 1998, and one that we will still be talking about in 10 year's time. So crack open a bottle or two now and make room in your cellar for the rest!

Only available from our Cellar Door, Cnr Leasingham Rd and Hill St, MINTARO
